

Friedrich-Naumann-Foundation for Freedom's Global Innovation Hub is looking for an

Communications Officer (full-time)

Friedrich-Naumann-Foundation for Freedom (FNF) is a German non-profit organization that seeks to foster liberal values and political education in Germany and world-wide. Since its founding in 1958, FNF and its local partners have been working to strengthen democratic political and civic organizations, promote citizen participation, openness, and accountability in government. The foundation campaigns for freedom and to commit to the responsibility that goes hand in hand with it.

In 2021, FNF's Global Innovation Hub moved to Taipei to work on topics of innovation and digitalization. The Hub hopes to recruit a communication officer who can work with us together to promote liberal values around the world.

We are looking for a qualified and committed new team member to:

- Develop, write, edit and promote marketing and communications materials, including press releases, blog posts, social media content, graphics and other promotional materials.
- Ensure that all publications, communications and marketing material align with corporate design
- In cooperation with the Regional Communications team develop, conceptualize and implement communications strategies and campaigns
- Support and advise program team and partners in communication matters
- Assist in proofreading and fact-checking the foundation's online contents and press articles
- Respond to media inquiries and perform media outreach
- contribute to our work with fresh and innovative ideas

Our ideal candidate has the following profile

- You are a Taiwan citizen or have the right to work in Taiwan without requiring employer sponsorship.
- You are fluent in English and Mandarin Chinese (spoken and written), German language skills are a strong plus.
- You have at least a Bachelor's degree in communication, media, public relations, or similar or a related field, or have acquired an equivalent amount of significant work experience.
- You have proficient computer skills and experience with design tools such as Adobe InDesign or Canva, as well as scheduling tools such as tweetdeck
- You have knowledge of the regional social media landscape, and a good sense and understanding for the local / regional political context and debates.
- You can work independently and as part of a team, and have strong self-organizational and great interpersonal communication skills.
- You identify with liberal values and are motivated to work in an international context.

We offer

- being part of a small, dynamic and motivated team
- an interesting international and intercultural work environment and networks
- 21 vacation days
- options for flexi-time working
- Monthly salary above 30.000 NTD, depending on experience and qualification

Please send your job application including CV, a motivation letter why you want to work with us, your annual salary expectations and earliest starting date to: anna.marti@freiheit.org. Deadline for submission is 14 February 2022. Shortlisted candidates will receive an invitation for interview after 18 February 2022.
